Foundations of Sustainability is an interdisciplinary course to introduce concepts and theories of sustainability at global, regional, and local levels.

Emphasis is on four thematic areas of sustainability: social, natural, built and managed systems.

The aim is to increase environmental literacy for engagement of sustainability within students’ own disciplines.